

NCSEJ HIGHLIGHTS

Over 45 Years of Leadership & Responsibility

2018

“When someone has an emergency in America, they call 911. When a Jew has an emergency in Ukraine, they call NCSEJ.”

Chief Rabbi of Dnipropetrovsk Shmuel Kaminezki

ABOVE: After a meeting with Keit Pentus-Rosimannus, Deputy Foreign Affairs Committee Chair and former Foreign Minister, in the Parliament building, Tallinn, Estonia, October 2018.

RIGHT: Remembering the Holocaust, Riga, Latvia, October 2018.

NCSEJ works in more than 20 countries with governments, NGOs, and local communities to empower and ensure the security of Jews in Eurasia and Eastern Europe. NCSEJ identifies, communicates, and defends Jewish interests in the region on behalf of the American Jewish community.

NCSEJ

NATIONAL COALITION SUPPORTING EURASIAN JEWRY

1120 20th Street NW, Suite 300N
Washington, D.C. 20036 USA

+1.202.898.2500 | www.ncsej.org

NCSEJ HIGHLIGHTS

2018

What We Do

Meeting with U.S. Ambassador Jon Huntsman, Jr. (second from left) over U.S.- Russia relations. Moscow, Russia, October 2018.

ADVOCATE

U.S. Members of Congress
U.S. Department of State
U.S. Helsinki Commission and OSCE
Diplomats from Eurasia
UN General Assembly
International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance
World Jewish Restitution Organization

REPORT

Weekly CEO brief and "Top Ten" news
Confidential regional reports for senior leadership
New country reports
Emergency bulletins

MONITOR

Newspapers, TV, and social media from the region
Fact-check stories
Promote accurate reporting

Debate and discourse at the NCSEJ Board of Governors meeting. Washington, D.C., June 2018.

Youth leaders revitalizing Jewish life in Estonia. Beit Bella Synagogue, Tallinn, Estonia, October 2018.

SUPPORT JEWISH COMMUNITIES

Special representative in Kyiv, Ukraine
Coordinate with local communities to facilitate social services
Work closely with international Jewish humanitarian organizations

FIGHT ANTI-SEMITISM

Investigate alleged incidents
Hold governments accountable
Demand enforcement of hate crime laws

MISSIONS TO THE REGION

Estonia	Israel
Latvia	Lithuania
Kazakhstan	Russia

EDUCATE

Briefings
Seminars
Conference calls
Diplomatic roundtables
Ambassador forums

DONATE

+1.202.898.2500

www.ncsej.org

NATIONAL COALITION SUPPORTING EURASIAN JEWRY
1120 20th Street NW, Suite 300N
Washington, D.C. 20036 USA