TO: NCSEJ Leadership and Interested Parties

FROM: James Schiller, Chairman;
Mark B. Levin, Executive Vice-Chairman & CEO

This week, The Jewish Federation of Ukraine held virtually the second Kyiv Jewish Forum. We would like to congratulate Boris Lozhkin, President of the Jewish Confederation of Ukraine, for putting together a successful and well-organized conference.

NCSEJ participated in the first conference last year in Kyiv – ours was the largest single delegation at the event. This year, NCSEJ CEO Mark Levin took part as one of the main speakers on a panel entitled 75 Years after World War II: untold stories of Jewish Heroes. The panel also featured Serhii Plokhii, Director of the Ukrainian Research Institute at Harvard University.
