

NCSEJ HIGHLIGHTS 2016

45 Years of Leadership & Responsibility

“To empower and ensure the security of Jews in Eurasia and Eastern Europe...”

Ukrainian President Petro Poroshenko with world leaders at the Babi Yar memorial service in Kyiv, Ukraine September 29, 2016 (Shahar Azran); Right: NCSEJ Chairman Daniel Rubin greets U.S. Senator Chris Murphy (CT) at the June Board of Governors meeting

NCSEJ works in 25 countries with governments, NGOs, and local communities to empower and ensure the security of Jews in Eurasia and Eastern Europe. NCSEJ identifies, communicates, and defends Jewish interests in the region on behalf of the American Jewish community.

1120 20th Street NW, Suite 300N
Washington, D.C. 20036 USA
+1.202.898.2500 | www.ncsej.org

NCSEJ HIGHLIGHTS 2016

What We Do

ADVOCATE

U.S. Members of Congress and committees
U.S. Department of State
U.S. Helsinki Commission and OSCE
Diplomats from Eurasia
UN General Assembly
International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance

REPORT

Weekly "In Brief"
Regular updates
New country reports
Emergency bulletins
Conference calls with leaders from the region

NCSEJ leadership mission with U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine Marie Yovanovitch in Kyiv, Ukraine

MONITOR

Newspapers, television, and social media
Phone calls with Jewish community leaders
Domestic reports about the region

FIGHT ANTI-SEMITISM

Investigate alleged incidents
Hold governments accountable
Ensure safety and security for Jewish communities

EDUCATE

Ambassador forums
Diplomatic roundtables
Briefings and seminars

SUPPORT JEWISH COMMUNITIES

NCSEJ special representative in Kyiv, Ukraine
Coordinate with local communities to facilitate social services
Work closely with international Jewish humanitarian organizations

NCSEJ President Alexander Smukler and CEO Mark Levin with Chief Rabbi of Ukraine Yaakov Bleich at Kyiv's Choral Synagogue

MISSIONS TO THE REGION

Hungary
Lithuania
Romania
Russian Federation
Ukraine

"To empower and ensure the security of Jews in Eurasia and Eastern Europe..."

Israeli Embassy Deputy Chief of Mission Reuven Azar with Executive Committee Member Karen Moss, Neil Moss, and Hillel International's Yasha Moz at the June Board of Governors meeting

DONATE

+1.202.898.2500

www.ncsej.org

1120 20th Street NW

Suite 300N

Washington, D.C. 20036 USA

